Crime and Punishment

Tuesday 12th November 2024

Crime and Punishment | The Roman Legacy

I can understand some of the terms used in crime and punishment.	✓	✓
I can correctly match some terms used in the British justice system with their meanings.	✓	✓
I can explain some of the terms used in the British justice system.	✓
I can find out about what the Romans believed about crime and punishment.	✓	✓
I can tell you some ways in which the Roman justice system has left a legacy today.	✓	✓
I can recall some key facts abut the types of punishments that the Romans would use.	✓	✓

Lenny - mark Grade: Lamp

The Roman Legacy

execution

The act of being put to death as punishment for breaking the law.

arson

The criminal act of deliberately setting fire to property.

pillory

A wooden frame with holes for the head and hands where someone would be forced to stay for lenghts of time and be embarrased in public, sometimes having things thrown at them

witness

A person who sees an event, such as a crime, take place.

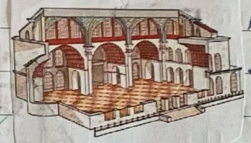
exile

To be sent away from home country forever, and never allowed to come back.

victim

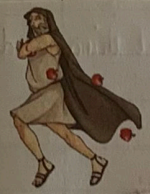
A person harmed, injured, or killed as a result of a crime, accident or other event.

court



A group of people, including a judge and jury, who come together and decide on whether people are guilty or not according to the law.

theft



The action or crime of stealing, taking something you do not own.

jury

A group of (usually twelve people who give a verdict in case based on informa that is presented in cour murder

The act of killing someone deliberatly, not my accident.

judge

This a person who ha been chosen to decide cases in law court.